

Heroes of the Faith Wax Museum

Dear Parents:

On Friday, February 26, your child will participate in the annual Third Grade Wax Museum. On Tuesday, January 26, your child will have the opportunity to select a “Christian” character to read at least one A.R. book on, write a report, create an information poster, and present orally. The criteria in selecting a character will be that your child cannot read about the person prior to January 26, and that each child has selected a different character so not to have ten Daniel Boones or five Helen Kellers. This process is done in a fair and non-partisan way; pulling numbered sticks and then having students select their characters. It would be a good idea for each student to have several Christian characters in mind before we go through the selection process, so not to be disappointed.

Please note the attached list of Christian characters that your child may choose. If your child would like to report on a Christian character that is not listed, please check with his/her teacher for approval. Please note below the important dates your child will need to consider when presenting his/her report.

- February 22: Wax Museum Oral Report due
- February 24: Wax Museum Posters due
- February 26: Wax Museum Presentations

Please also note the Wax Museum Grading Sheet on the backside of this letter to help your child prepare for the Wax Museum. Please note that 5 points will be deducted from your child’s final grade if late with any of the above assignments. If you have any questions, please contact your child’s teacher.

Sincerely,
Third Grade Teachers
